PINOT GRIS RÉSERVE 2014

Alsace, France

93 WINEENTHUSIAST
MAGAZINE
POINTS AUGUST 2017

A lifted, ethereal note of bitter almond suggests the beginnings of evolution. The palate, on the other hand, still seems closed but displays a streamlined concentrated core of flawless dryness and precise bundled freshness. This is taut, precise and sure to develop. The finish is lasting, refreshing and clean. Drink now through 2030. —A.K.
